Practical information:

What to wear and bring

Barcelona is warm at this time of year. Most of the time, it is sunny with some cloud. The average temperature is around 20°C. You may wish to wear lightweight business casual attire to avoid overheating.

Security

Barcelona is no more dangerous in terms of theft than any other large European city. However, please keep an eye on your bags and wallets and never put a bag on the back of a chair in a bar, etc. Should you have any form of trouble in this way the conference team will help you. Similarly if you need medical help then also approach the conference team and we will help you out. Please do not leave personal belongings in the hall where the sessions are held. Keep them with you at all times.

More practical information will be provided in due course.

Cancellation policy:

In case you are not able to attend, please note that requests for reimbursements must be sent to summerschool@guninetwork.org by 18th August 2017 at the latest (CET/GMT+2). 50€ will be retained to cover administration costs. No reimbursements will be made after this date.
